About Youth to Youth

Youth to Youth was founded in 1982 as a small community drug prevention program for middle and high school youth. The focus of its many programs is harnessing the powerful force of peer pressure and turning it around to become a positive force that encourages youth to live tobacco, alcohol, and drug-free lives.

About the key-note speaker:

Since 1992, Javier has been an advocate for youth and has been encouraging teens to realize that once they catch a vision and a sense of purpose for their life, there are NO LIMITS to their potential. He practices what he preaches as well. After being effectively mentored in the Youth to Youth International program, Javier made a major move, packing his bags and heading to the Cayman Islands.
